

Friends of Port Louisa

National Wildlife Refuge

The Friends of Port Louisa National Wildlife Refuge is a group dedicated to promoting awareness and appreciation of the Port Louisa National Wildlife Refuge and the greater National Wildlife Refuge System through education and support.

Planned projects include helping the refuge develop additional visitor services including interpretive signs, events and publicity. While volunteering is not required of Friends members, many are also interested in hands-on work at the refuge.

The power of the Friends is its members. We represent a variety of interests, talents and financial support allowing the Friends to meet its mission.

If you would like to help in that effort, we encourage you to become a member, or renew your support, by sending in this form with your membership donation.
